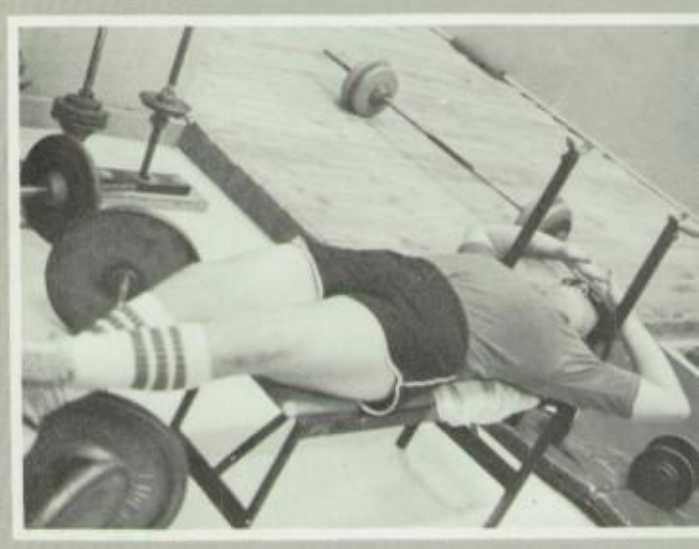
ACTIVITIES

ACTIVITY, N.: 1. THE QUALITY OR STATE OF BEING ACTIVE. 2. AGILITY; NIMBLENESS. 3. AN ACTIVE FORCE.

POWERLIFTING



Just like the name implies, the members of Powerlifting Club lift weights. They joined for a variety of reasons ranging from training for sports, keeping in shape, to toning muscles and experiencing the thrills of competition. No matter what the reason for joining was, Mr. Whitehurst, their sponsor, works them hard. Sweat is not spared in this club!

TRIP TO ASAG!

Several lucky Dimondites were sent to Valdez for ASAG, the Alaska Association of Student Government, where they participated in a joint effort to solve student problems and discuss important ideas. They also selected the officers for the as yet upcoming Spring Conference, of which Evan Clift, a junior at Dimond, was elected Vice President. Another of ASAG's functions was to choose the finalists for the State Board of Education student representative. Kevin Linnell, another from Dimond, was one of the five chosen. Special Congratulations to these two.

The Student Council contains many of the "DOERS" at Dimond. With the inspiring leadership of Mrs. Johnson, the Student Council discussed such problems as the teacher's strike, helped organize such activities as the Lucky Lynx Festival, Prom and Spring Formal, and improved Dimond's appearance by painting the benches. They have many responsibilities, and in meeting the challenges the school presents, prove their leadership abilities to all. We at Dimond greatly appreciate all the self-less, hard, determined work the Student Council members have put in on our behalf.

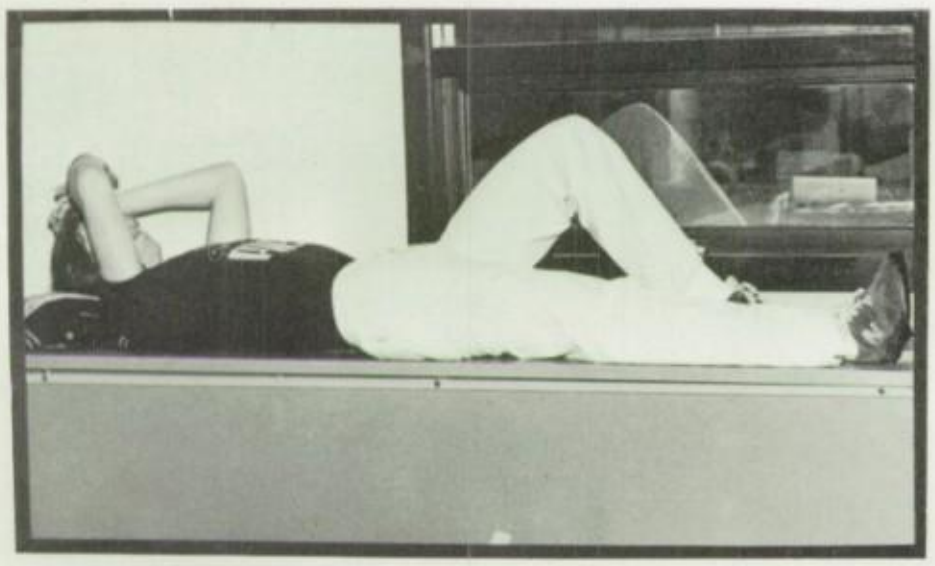
FORENSICS



Forensics, better known as Debate, consists of a handful of students who wish to express their views and opinions in an orderly (?) way.

It is a terrific club for any amateur arguer to join and if you don't believe us, just ask Forensics, they'll make you see it their way!!!

MATH CLUB

The Math Club is new to Dimond this year. Mr. Derks, its sponsor, has them meet once a week to study problems of high level math. They take the Atlantic Pacific League test once a month to receive awards. They work hard and get many benefits from it.

HONOR SOCIETY

Left to Right, On the Stairs: Darla Marcott, Colleen Hitchcock, Jeff Carlson, Shelly Clark, Lynne Hanson, Pam Matchett, Cathy Campbell, Beth Hippe, Rachel Brosamer, Kayla Bergman, Srephanie Srone, Evan Clift, Cathy Parkmann, Ray Luse, Joanne Landry, Michelle Smock, Bruce Erickson, Kay Simmons, Bryce Klug, Scott Willhite Standing Up: Leslie Vandergaw, Donna Haffman, Kay Day, Laura Macianello, Bert Flatre, Diana Hodapp, Cecilia Miller, Darrelle Koonce, Terra Vandergaw, Leslie Benrson, Duane Burton, Lori Brownlee Sitting Down: Salena Morrow, Terri Halliwill, Liz Argetsinger, Nanette Duryea, Dawn Adamson

The National Honor Society is an organization for students that excel academically. The club at Dimond is very active, doing such things as selling balloons at Homecoming, supporting A.J. Dimond Day, and tutoring fellow students during lunch.

Though a 3.5 grade point average is required, the NHS is not just for bookworms and walking encyclopedias. Anyone is welcome (and encouraged) to join the club.

CONCERT BAND

Concert Band is a group of very talent ed musicians who are under the direc tion of Mr. Nagel.

This group meets during 4th hour to practice, practice, practice! Many of these students have been in band since Junior High and have a very bright, musical future ahead of them.

They make a concert pure pleasure to attend because of their dedication to mu sic and to Mr. Nagel!

CONCERT CHOIR

Concert Choir is an excellent class for people interested in music and/or gaining vocal experience. Most of these people participated in the musical, Carousel, as well as the various concerts the choir presented throughout the year. They are very talented, and if by some strange chance you have never attended one of their concerts, you don't know what you're missing.

Our Symphonic band at Dimond is very energetic, dedicared, and full of great ideas. One of their mosr creative efforts of the year , their own version of the school fighr song, we decided ro pur in the yearbook. It goes like this: "Best in the Land
The mighry Lynx of Dimond High.
throughout the brass,
The Rivals hear our battle blast,
BLAT! BLAT! BLAT!
Victory for you
Throughout the saxophones and flutes,
For maroon and gold we'll play
Our loyalty forever Parcel's band,
TWO! THREE! FOUR!"

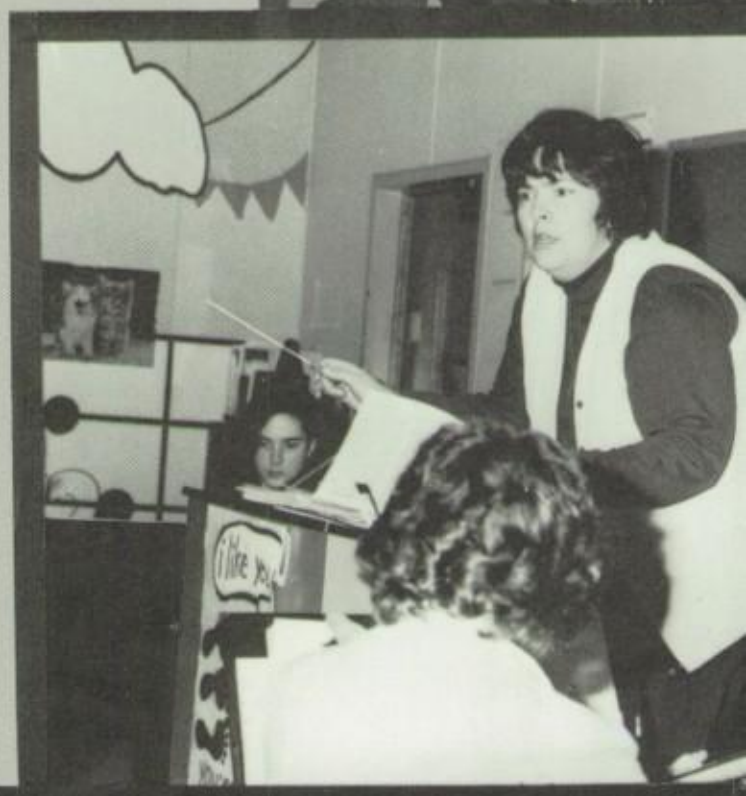
Orchestra: the class for people with music in their souls, dexterous hands, and the ability to duck Mrs. Boring's escaped baton. These hard working, underrated people are very talented. Not only must they shirk off rude comments like, "Hey look, Waldo, a submachine gun is coming down the hall!" but they also have to dedicate great deals of time and energy to their instruments. When a concert comes up, they are beset by frantic rehersals, threats and lost music. After it is all over and the last musical strains have dies away, we know the time and energy was well spent.



INTERMEDIATE CHOIR

Cathy Allen, Christine Bowling, Brenda Boyles, Cindy Boyles, Shannon Brown, Tammy Cline, Patricia Frost, Tambria Goldsmith, Debbie Graham, Corienne Handy, Billie Haye, Suzan Howell, Lisa Landeis, Janice Lauwers, Brideen Moore, Michelle Morron, Charlene Robbins, Tobi Schelin, Beverly Snyder, Shelli Stickler.

Intermediate Choir is a group of underclassmen, well, girls, whose sweet voices are a pleasure to listen to.

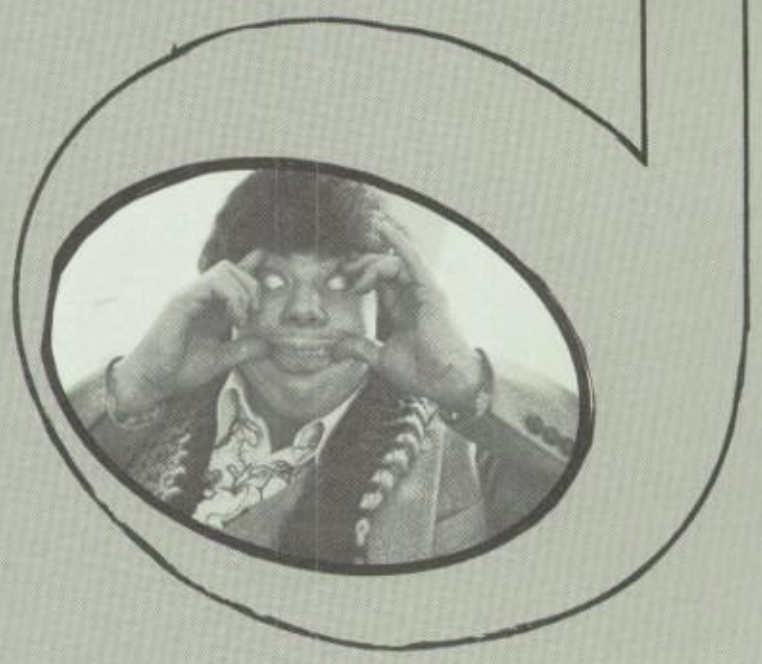
Mrs. Fedje directs this lively bunch in their seasonal concerts, and if you've never attended one of their concerts, you'll never know what you're missing! They're really very good!!!

SWING CHOIR

Left to Right: Natasha Edscorn, Penny White, Kelly Bentson, Lynne Hanson, Lana Lauwers, Stephanie Flynn, Jeff Carlson, Mark Vincent, John Lovedahl, Steve Reddy, Carey Heim, Bubba Tucker, Dan Wilcock, Gary Steele, Teresa Murton, Holly Mayer, Theresa Lynch, Cindy Krise, Julie Hueners. Center: Brian Cunningham, Grant Koehler, Ray Luse. Not Pictured: Andy Skinner, Traci Bergr, Brandy Collins, Andy Carroll.

The Swing Choir well represents Dimond as they mix singing with choreography. They perform for anhorage clubs, grade schools, service organizations, and seasonal concerts.

This year's choir consisting entirely of seniors, is directed by Berry Fedje. Narasha edscorn accompanies.



ENCY DOOR

STAGE BAND

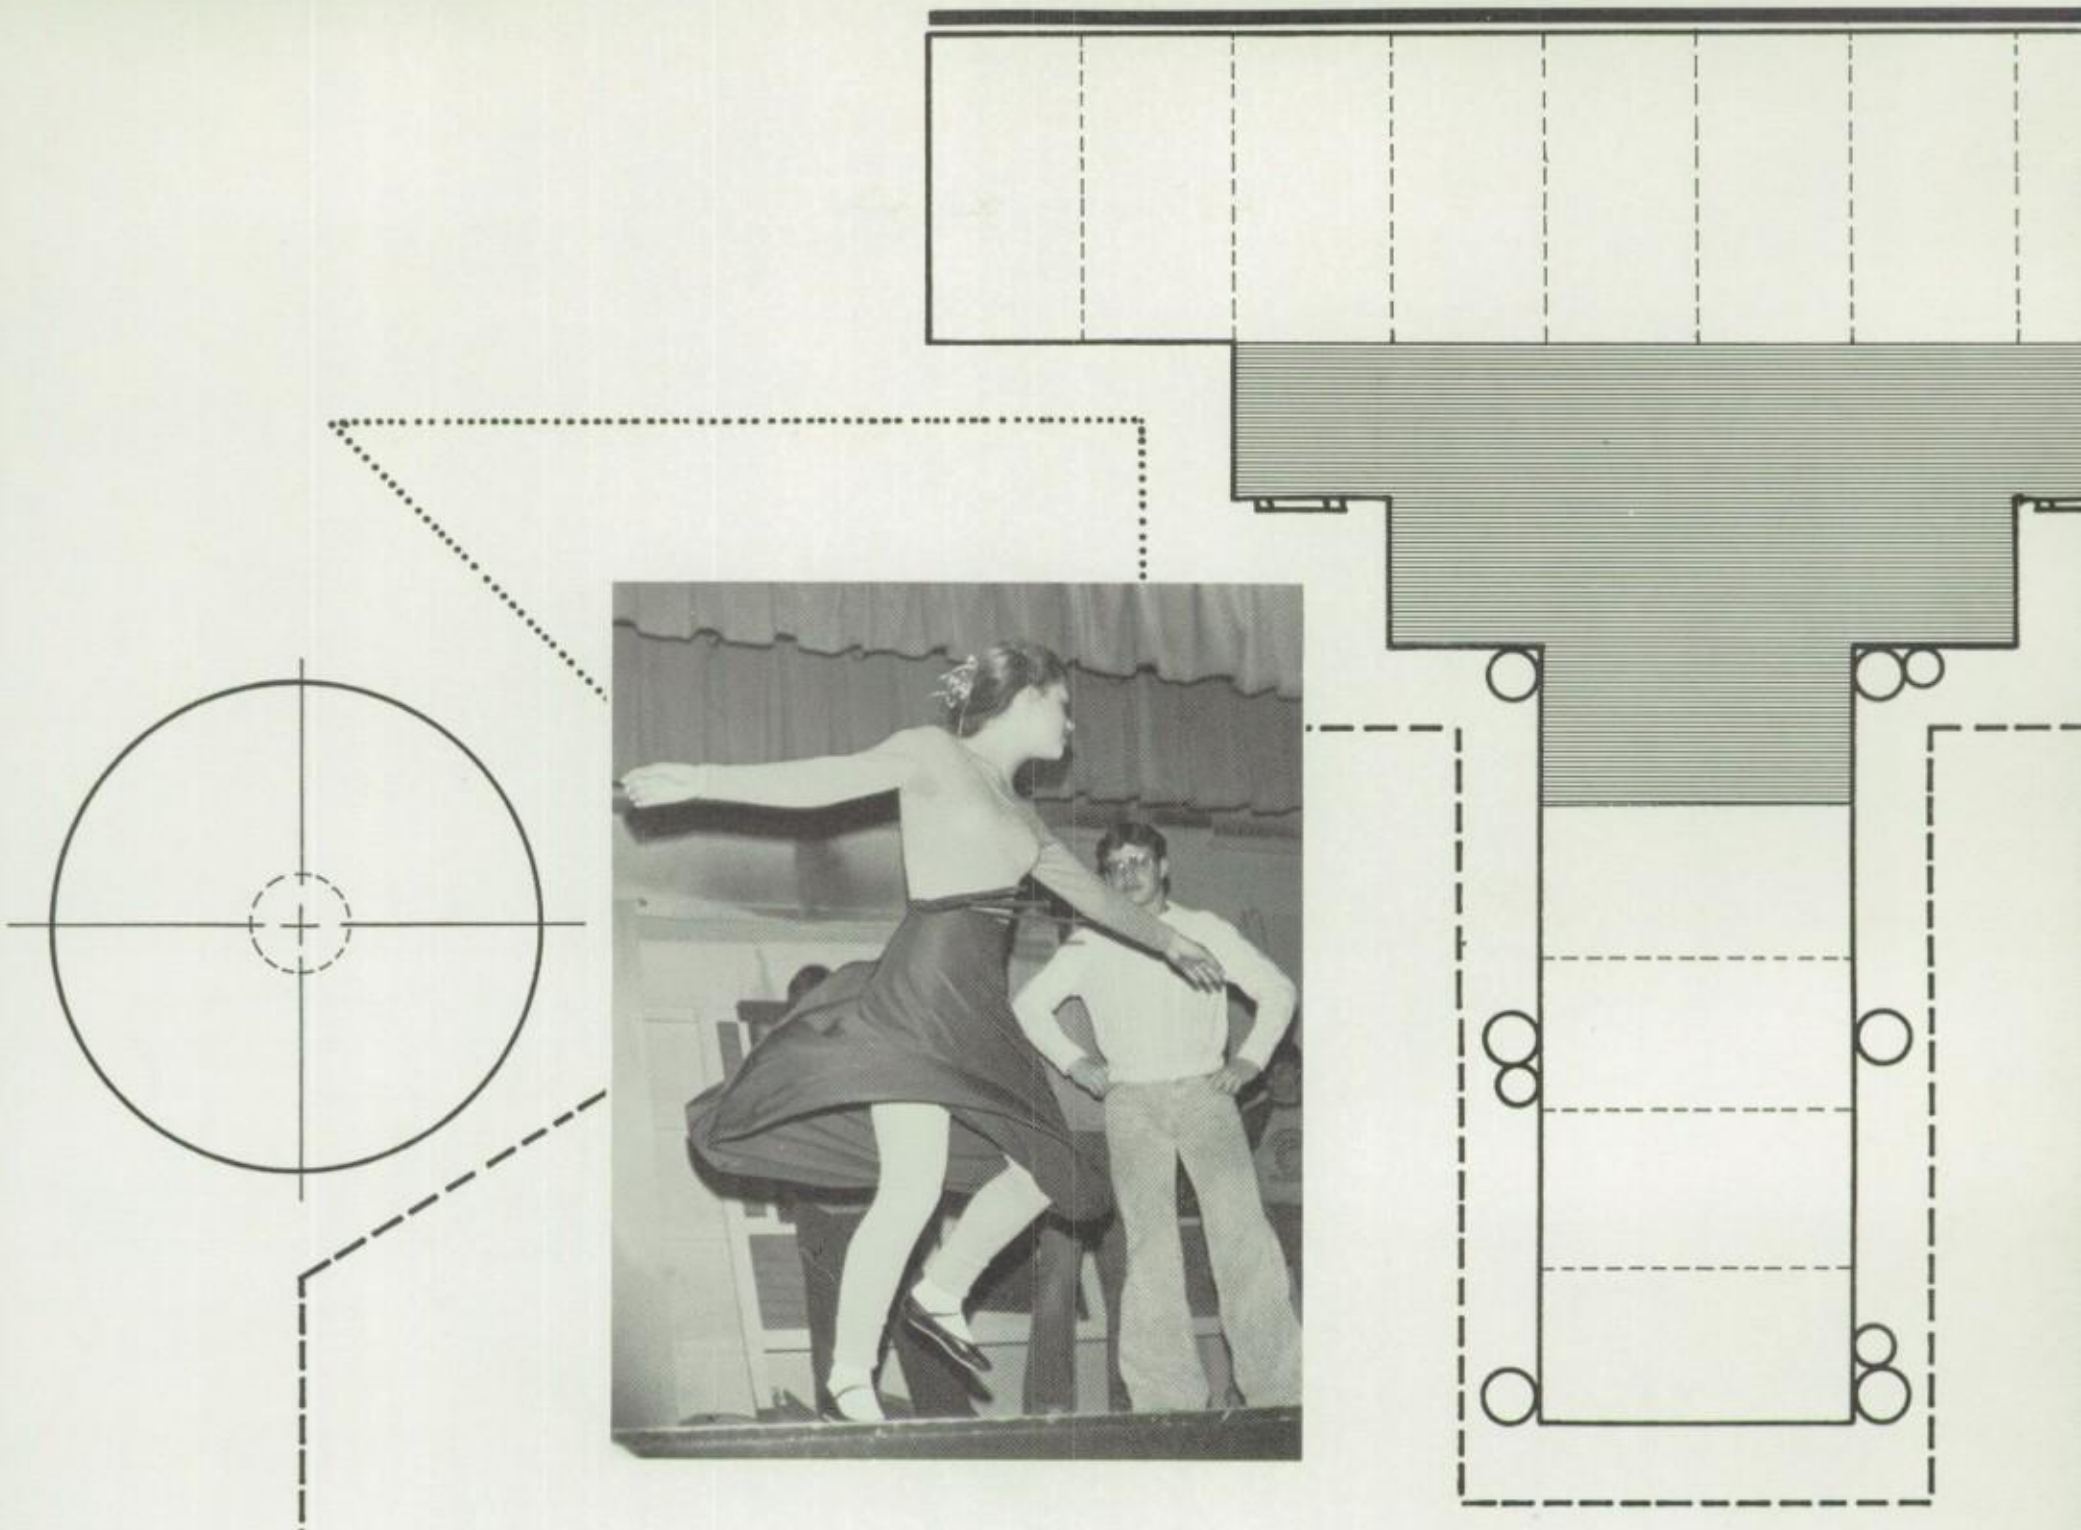
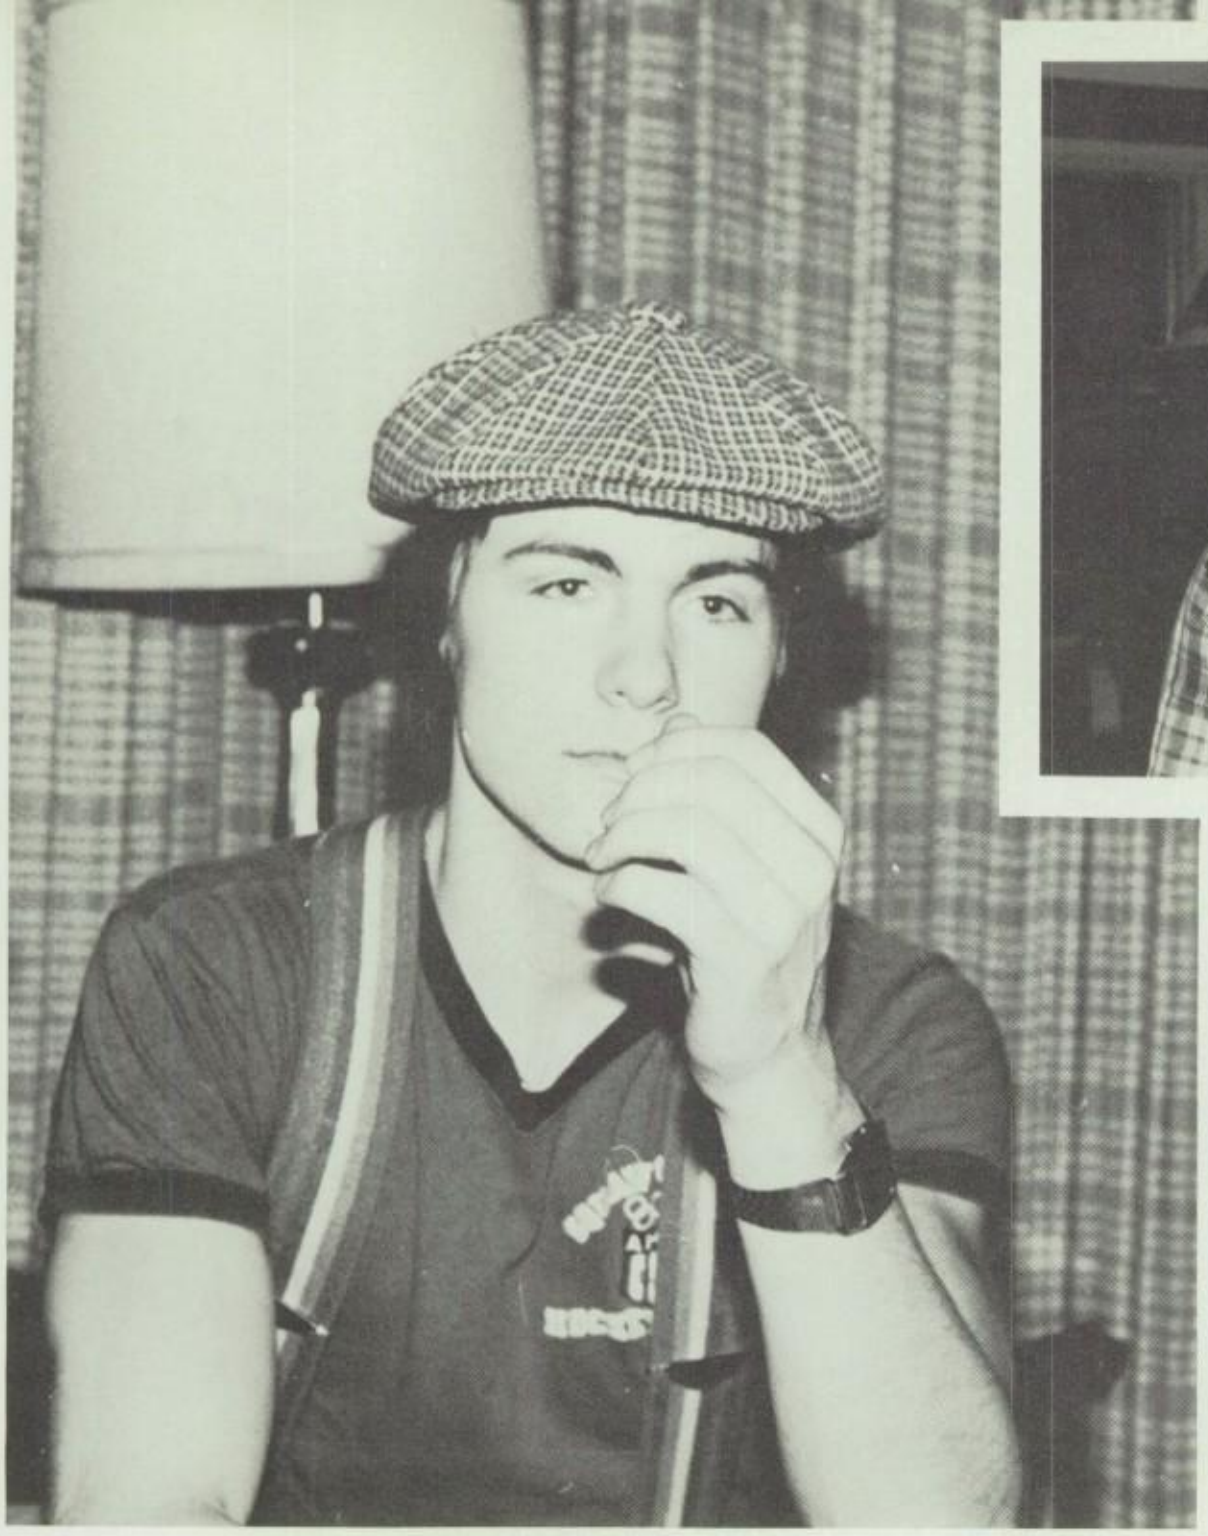
Srage Band members are a special breed of musicians. They hold true talenr! When listening ro them perform, you find your foor raping, goose bumps covering your arms, and a sudden urge ro "boogie" with the bear.

This grear band causes the crowds ro srir with excirement whenever they play. Dimond is really proud of this fantastic band!



CAROUSEL

Our thanks to Mrs. Fedje and you, Dimond High School.



D CLUB

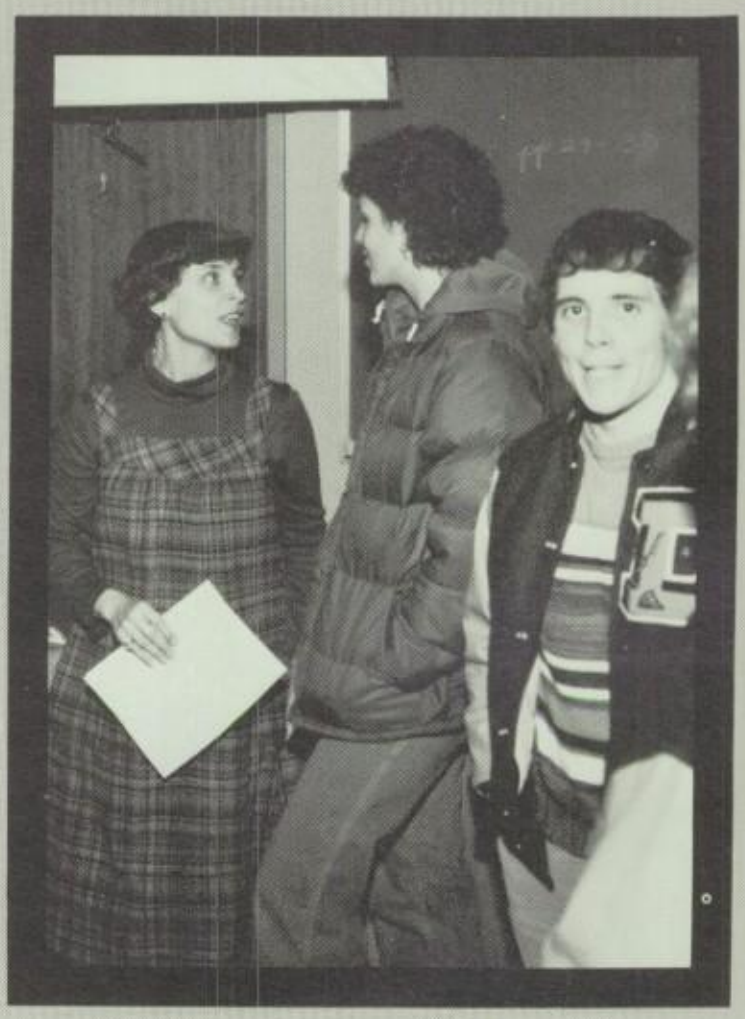
Mr. Whitehurst and Mrs. Dooley are the sports enthusiasts that lead the D-Club; a club for people with a letter in a varsity sport. Obtaining a letter at Dimond is extremely tough as the competition is keen. Those who are successful are quite proud of their accomplishments, as well they should. The D Club raises money by running the concession stands, and is then used to promote the sports program and give others the opportunity to earn a prestigious "D".



PEP CLUB

Karen Rainwater, Misty Frank, Brenda Klug, Lisa Muehlhausen, Karen Knecht, Veronica Ireland, Anne Engstrom, Debbie Tsylor, Kim Rainwater, Tawnia Henin, Bedsky Hildreth, Kim Lavin, Kim Pruitt, Lisa Loy, Luey Barta, Dotty Blackford, Grethen Playle, Cecilia Miller, Debbie Wyatt, Cathy Campbell, Michelle Smock, Janet Friedl, Pat Koonce, Patrie Woodrich, Audrey Hanson, Debbie Warren, Tasha Orme, Diane Brownlee, Debbie Neuser, Kathy Rudd, Katrina Johns, Debbie Haynes, Susan Boehret, Kristi Prazak, Molly Carey, Katie O'Donnell, Tina Navoni, Trina Murray, Sheryl Wilson, Jonelle Miller, Carrie White, Joey Goeldner, Colleen Hitchcock, Theresa Lynch

Pep Club—an organization for the spirited crowd...only energetic souls join. Noticeable for their wild pompoms, loud yells and cheers our Pep Club makes the Dimond audiences exciting. Without our athletic supporters, Dimond High teams wouldn't do nearly as well.

This club is truly the heart and soul of Dimond High. We, at Dimond very much admire your bouncing pep!

MAT MAIDS

L to R: Back Row: Carrie White, Heidi Heinrich, Kim Rainwater, Marisa Martin, Jennifer Logan. Middle Row: Kim Ray, Jill Frensley, Jade Hamilton, Cynthia Melton, Lorna Crawford, Stephanie Simmons, Jo Ann Campbell, Front Row: Karen Rainwater, Carrie Bennett, Kim Tucker, Deborah Wyatt, Mary Ainsworth, Jeanie Ogren

No, the Mat Maids are not the girls in figure skates that decorate your milk carton. Rather, they are the supporting squad for the wrestlers. Providing juice, towels and a cheering section to the perspiring participants, the Mat Maids provide a much appreciated service to the wrestlers. However, being a Mat Maid isn't ALL fun and games. They actively raise money throughout the year to buy their men equipment and uniforms. Such dedication to a worthy cause is admirable.

AQUATICS CLUB

Aquatics Club is one of the new clubs to join Dimond's activities. The sponsor of this humongous club is the swim coach, Mr. Lusk, and most of the members belong to the swim team. The purpose of this new club is to earn money in various ways to buy equipment for improvements of the pool and other things much needed by the swim team. These students plan to make Aquatics stick around for a long time and with the number of members there already are, no doubt it will be here for years to come!

Soul on Ice is a black culture club designed to promote pride and to let society know we exist!

The club is primarily black but does include minorities.

This club does a variety of activities thanks to the help of a wacky, but really nice sponsor, Mr. Owens.

This club is just another great club that Dimond is lucky to have!

ART CLUB

Arch Bishop Swenson leads the crazy group of souls who call themselves the Art Club. Though the name lacks originality, the members surely don't! Their handiwork is shown in the display case throughout the year, as well as at Art Club sales. The money the Art Club raises is used for college scholarship—a big help for the typically impoverished artist!!

NATIVE CULTURE CLUB

OBJECTIVE: To learn about the Native cultures in Alaska.
MEANS: Field trips, movies, and participation in native events (ie Native Olympics)

These formal statements tell about Native Culture Club. What they don't reveal is the fact that they meet every 2 weeks, that they have an outstanding sponsor, Cathy Priest, and they have fun learning about their heritage.

PLANETARIUM

The dark emptiness of the room overtook me with forcefullness as the din about me subsided. All was quiet, all was dark, and suddenly all was light! Before me spun the universe on a dome of creative awarness. Each star, each planet, the sun, and the moon were all the objects of my gaze. All under my control as I took the helm of my interstellar attack fighter. "Laser ready quadrant two . . . FIRE!!", I said.

Down goes Darth Vader by the mighty strength of my hand. But then it was over, lights on and voices raised, twas over again. My visit to the planetarium, the adventurous, mystic, planetarium . . . was over.

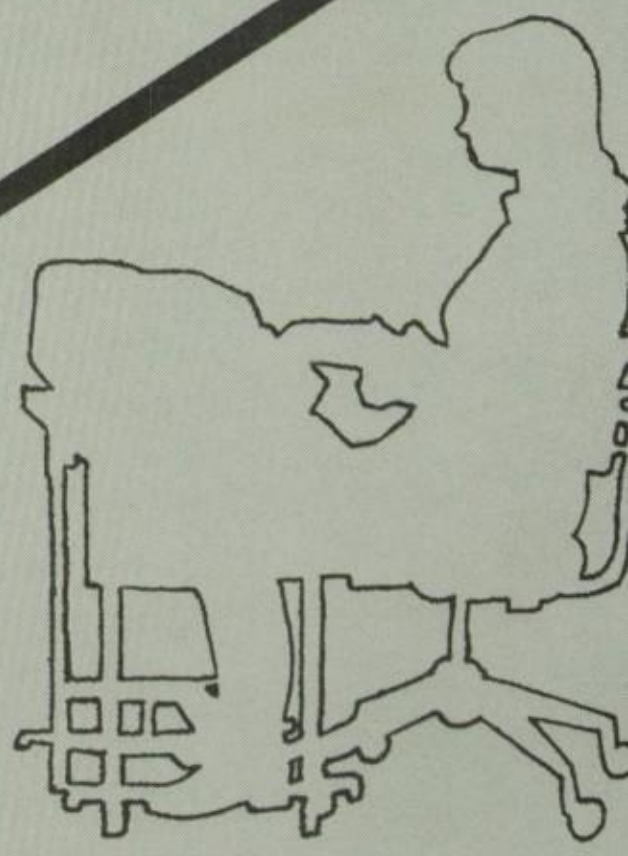
If you belong to the Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA), you can expect to be kept busy. The members of the club are so enthusiastic about what they do (arranging the Lair showcase, working in it, selling raffle tickets, and going to the National Convention) that they never lack for work. What's more, the members love every minute of it.



OEA—Office Education Association—is a club for students who are interested in a future business career. Why? Because they spend so much time working in offices, that anyone NOT interested in gaining office skills would soon bow out. The OEA at Dimond works hard, and they are proud of what they do. We, at Dimond, are proud of them too.

LITERARY CLUB

Dimond's Literary Club is quite an energetic group, though they don't pump iron or yell at games. Instead, they produce the marvel of literary creation published at the end of each school year.

One of the most remembered activities of this club; was the selling of mistletoe during the Yule tide season. That was really a creative idea, don't you think? It bears poking yourself with a sharp stick!

This group really deserves a pat on the back!!!

DIMOND LITTLE THEATER

If you've ever attended one of the Dimond Little Theatre productions then you know what a fine group of very, very, very, talented actors and actresses Dimond posessess

This group has put on some pretty terrific performances that have yet to be matched by anyone in the state

"The Bad Seed", was directed by Mr. Wilson and was one of the most talked about plays put on this year

So look out Dimond, who knows how many Dimond alumni may win an oscar or two!

Bodies parked in the halls with noses buried in the paper marks the distriburion day of the Igaramkin. A monthly Publicarion, our school newspaper records the evenrs and issues at Dimond High for posreriry.

It is creared by an individualistic, nose to the grindsrone sraff with the help of their encouraging sponsor — Mrs. Hickok. They have faced the frustration of looming deadlines and un-written articles. Through thick and thin, they have done their job well. Truly, the Igaramkin is a credit to their genious.

HOT TANG

BRAND

INSTANT BREAKFAST DRINK

Joe Redington, Sr., father of the Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race . . . drinks hot Tang.

This is what Joe Redington has to say . . . "My team sets a grueling pace as we race over the frozen tundra. I like to pause and have a hot drink. I always take Tang along, and drink it hot. It's convenient too. The concentrated form fits nicely in my pack and it is easy to mix. More importantly, hot Tang is satisfying and tastes great!" Many of you have been drinking cold Tang Brand Instant Breakfast Drink with Vitamin C for years. Now take a tip from Joe Redington and try some hot Tang on a cold, blustery day.

Recipe: Place 1 heaping tablespoon Tang in an 8 ounce mug.
Pour in boiling water.
Stir . . . and drink.
